WONDERFUL VITALITY.

An Engineer Runs a Locomotive While His Head Is Split Open.

He Holds His Skull Together With One Hand—His Assistant Said to Have Been Lynched.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 21.—Andrew J. Ford is dying from the effects of a murderous blow at the hands of a negro assailant. The scene of the affray was near Surrency, a little place in Appling County. Surrency is about ten miles from the East Tennessee road, and is a small town which has grown about McDonough & Co.'s saw-mill. From the mill to the East Tennessee there is a private railroad, and Ford is engineer on that road. A week ago, while running toward the mill, something was found to be the matter with the track, and Ford ordered the mill hands who were on the train forward to fix the track. All obeyed except a negro named John Pinkston, who absolutely refused. "All right," said Ford, "then you can't ride on my train." A few moments later Ford looked up from his work and saw Pinkston coming toward him with an axe in his hand as if to strike Ford. Ford started toward his engine. He was unarmed, and, missing his footing, fell to his knees. Just as he did so Pinkston rushed up and buried the axe in his skull. Pinkston made his escape before others could catch him. Ford staggered to his feet, and, getting on his engine, held his skull together with his left hand, and, with his right, managed to run his engine to Surrency. When he got there he became unconscious. Physicians did all in their power for him, but he became worse. Yesterday he was moved to Atlanta for treatment. Today Dr. D. Howell removed several pieces of skull. Ford is in unconscious condition, and will, it is thought, die before morning. McDonough & Co., proprietors of the saw-mill at Surrency, offered $100 reward for Pinkston's arrest. It is stated on good authority that the negro was caught and lynched, but the fact is kept quiet because of the fact that there are five times as many negroes about Surrency as there are white men.

CUNNING SCHEME.

Two Young Bank Clerks of Washington Caught in an Original Job of Forgery.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Harry T. Cook, aged twenty-one, and Charles T. Cook, his brother, some years younger, were arrested here this afternoon, the elder for forgery and the younger for collusion. Their plan of operations was novel and ingenious; and but for an oversight, which they thought they had avoided, they could have gone on indefinitely in their course. Harry was the discount clerk in the Columbia National Bank, where, of course, he had access to the signatures and accounts of the bank's patrons. The scheme was to have the elder brother, who was known as Harry T. Cook, under an assumed name, open an account in another bank. He then forged the name of one of the Columbia Bank's depositors to a series of checks payable to himself under his assumed name and got his younger brother to deposit them in his account. The checks, after they had been returned to the Columbia Bank for collection, and after they had been paid and entered in the books, were secured by the forger and destroyed. The culprits are the sons of the late Prof. Cook of this city. The scheme had to be checked by that of John R. McLean. The amount secured was $2,024.

The immigration for the seven months ending the 31st of July, 1886, was 221,313. Thus our increase in population from immigration in favor of the seven months of this year was 14,038.

Pomarede had a grass farm at Fourque, near La Selve. He died six hours after having eaten the steak. Decomposition was so rapid that the mayor of his commune judged well to authorize his burial within the time prescribed by law."

LOST AT SEA.

An Inman Steamer Burned in Mid-Ocean—Thirteen Persons Perish.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The passengers and crew of the City of Albany were taken off the New York City by the tug Mount Etina and landed at Queenstown. All were accounted for except the thirteen persons in the missing boat. It is learned that shortly after the passengers had gone to bed on the night of the 10th, the ship being in latitude 43 deg. north at the time, they were aroused by an alarm of fire. A scene of consternation ensued, and the passengers were greatly terrified when they found out the true state of affairs. The smoke caused by the fire was suffocating. The passengers dressed and got on deck as quickly as possible, and with but little appearance of panic. The fire originated in the cotton stored in the after main hold. Nine steamers were working on the vessel and the water was being pumped toward Newfoundland. The flames spread with great rapidity and soon had burst out with terrific force through the midway and after hatches, the heat being intense. It becoming evident that it was impossible to save the ship, a momentary panic ensued.

HUMAN MAD DOG.

An Arkansas Planter Mangles His Wife and Mother in a Frightful Manner While in the Delirium of Hydrophobia.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 19.—Yesterday morning Milton Cox, a respectable and well-to-do planter living south of the city, left the breakfast-table saying he felt ill, and was followed to the yard by his wife and mother. He then began to imitate the antics of a dog—jumping, barking and howling. Springing at his wife he knocked her down, bit her with his teeth and lacerated her neck. His mother, attempting to protect the wife, was then set on and bitten on the arms and shoulders. She is advanced in years, and the assaults on both are likely to prove fatal. The men who finally overpowered Cox were also bitten, and he was placed in the insane asylum last night. It is stated he was bitten by a dog nearly a year ago, and is now suffering from hydrophobia.

A NEBRASKA TORNADO.

Two Persons Killed and Several Injured—Property Destroyed.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—A Lincoln (Neb.) special gives particulars of a storm at Hepler, Neb., yesterday. Buildings were blown down and houses unroofed. Wetherill's house was blown away, and his wife and two children buried in the debris, and all more or less injured. Several other buildings were carried away or wrecked, and several other persons badly hurt. The extent of the damage cannot be estimated at this time. Hailstones an inch in diameter fell during the storm.

Making Revenge as Sweet as Possible.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Miss Ada Hardy and Charles Pitcher from Lakeview was cleared up to-day. Matthew Noble, a friend of Pitcher, vouches for the information that the couple were married secretly in Milwaukee, a couple of weeks ago, and are now in Atchison, Kan., where the young man has a good position. The marriage and departure were unannounced because they feared opposition from the girl's parents. It is not denied that young Pitcher sought to be revenged upon his future father-in-law for causing his arrest as a deserter from the army, but the would-be avenger fell in love with his enemy's daughter, and he then thought he might as well make his revenge as sweet as possible.

Remains of a Mastodon.

GALENA, Ill., Aug. 19.—Workmen on the Chicago and Northwestern road unearthed a portion of the skeleton of a mastodon near here yesterday. Most of the bones were badly decayed, but Dr. Wm. Hutton, of Elizabeth, secured a tooth of the monster animal. The tooth is about five inches long and four inches in width, and weighs seven pounds. The enamel of the tooth is stony, perfect and of a bluish-silvery tint. Clouds of increased density coloring returned after a few minutes, and then daylight ensued. Thousands of people came to Berlin by the railway and in carriages from different points to observe the phenomenon.

WRECKS ON THE RAIL.

Railroad Disasters in Different Sections of the Country.

An Overturned Sleeper Kills a Porter and Injures Several Passengers—Firebrand Attempts to Wreck a Train—The Coroner Renders a Verdict in the Chatsworth Horror—A Batch of Minor Accidents.

CHATSWORTH, Ill., Aug. 18.—The coroner's jury agreed on a verdict this morning which holds Timothy Coughlin, foreman of Section 7, to the grand jury, and negatively exonerates the company. The management is not censured for running double header, for a lax system of track inspection or for any thing else. The verdict simply says that the failure to patrol the track for six hours before the train came, and the habit of burning grass close to the track is a subject for criticism. The three or four friends of the road on the jury had better staying qualities than the two or three of those who wanted to fix a portion of the blame on the management.

ALLIANCE, O., Aug. 18.—On account of a slight wreck east of here this morning, No. 8, on the Ft. Wayne road, was transferred to the Cleveland and Pittsburgh track at this place, and started on its way to Pittsburgh over that line. When a point one-fourth mile east of Bayard, a small town twelve miles south of here, was reached, the rear sleeper close to the track was struck by a freight train. The caboose and engine were badly smashed, but no one was injured.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 18.—A special train on the Louisville and Nashville road this morning which was to have been run from New Haven to Lebanon, but having no passengers on board, was wrecked at Shepherdsville. A freight train which went out ahead of the passenger was to have gone on the side-track at Shepherdsville, but was delayed for a few minutes. No flagman was sent out, and the passenger train came along at a good rate of speed, and in the rear of the freight. The caboose and engine were badly smashed, but no one was injured.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—A diabolical attempt was made to wreck a train on the Galena division of the Northwestern railroad last evening, near Belvidere, which happily proved abortive owing to the nature of the road at that point. Some miscreants placed a large stone on the track and wedged it in between the ties. The obstruction, however, was discovered in time by the engineer to avert a catastrophe.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 18.—A collision occurred last night on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad by one of the east-bound freight trains running into the rear of another freight, by which seventeen cars were wrecked. The engineer and conductor of one of the trains were, it is believed, fatally injured. The firemen are also probably fatally hurt.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Near Naperville, Ill., two Chicago, Burlington and Quincy live stock trains collided in a fog this morning, making a fearful wreck, slaughtering a large number of the cattle and hogs. One of the engineers, known as Yankee Robinson, was seriously but not fatally injured.

CANNED FRUIT FAMINE.

Even Bountiful California Can Not Supply the Demand.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—The Tribune this morning says the fruit dealers of the United States have been placed in an unprecedented situation. Except in California the fruit crops throughout the country have failed. In Chicago, as elsewhere, stocks of dried and preserved goods are about exhausted, and owing to the scarcity of labor on the Pacific coast, cannot be replaced. The result is that the prices have risen from 10 to 15 per cent. Canned goods, especially fruits, are apparently going to retail during the winter at fully 50 per cent. above the prices obtained a year previous. According to the Tribune, an increase of 25 per cent. to California last year's pack will not be sufficient to prevent the threatened canned fruit famine in the East.

Eclipse of the Sun.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Prof. J. K. Rees, of Columbia College, said to-night that the total eclipse of the sun to-day was visible about one hundred and fifty miles wide, extending from Berlin east across to Russia, Siberia and Japan, and well out to the Pacific Ocean. Observers were stationed all along this line. England, France, Russia, Germany and Spain all sent delegations.

Prof. C. A. Yale, of Peoria, was with his assistant, Mr. McNeal, was stationed near Moscow, and Prof. D. P. Todd, of Amherst, went to Japan to observe the eclipse from a point near Jeddo. The duration of totality was about three and half minutes, and in this brief time Prof. Young made the necessary observations of the corona, made spectroscopic observations of the protuberances, took photographs and perhaps search for the inter-mercurial planet or planets that have been seen or imagined during former eclipses.

EXPRESS WRECKED.

Jumped the Track at Washington—Engine Scalded to Death—Eighteen Persons Badly Injured.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The Washington and Baltimore express, which left Cincinnati yesterday morning at 8:47, and which was due here at 6:30 this morning, was, with the exception of the sleeper, completely wrecked within the city limits and about a half mile from the Washington depot. At Grafton a Chicago sleeper was taken on the train. Both sleepers remained on the track, and none of the occupants was seriously hurt.

The rest of the train, consisting of a postal, express, baggage, smoker and two day coaches, went off the track and were thoroughly wrecked. There were about fifty passengers on the train. Of these, eighteen were disabled, the engineer so scalded that he died in a short time, while the fireman and two or three other train hands were badly bruised. Most of the injured were taken to Providence Hospital. The Baltimore road from the west enters the city on First street, East, which is the street that, prolonged, passes in front of the Capitol. About half way between the depot and the depot, near the Capitol, the "Y" connects the Washington track with the main line from Baltimore. The western trains run by way of the "Y" to the Baltimore track and thence back down to the depot. The "Y" is a very sharp curve turning the direction of the train at right angles within about one hundred yards of the depot. The grade from the depot is by railroad men to be ten miles. This train struck it at a rate of speed which was certainly fifty miles, and probably sixty miles an hour. The trouble seems to have been wholly with the failure of the side-brakes. The grade from a point near the city to the point of the accident is descending. The train was about ten minutes behind, and was running with great rapidity as it approached the boundary, and all the conditions for the wreck which followed were established.

NOT GUILTY.

Z. T. Young, Allie W. Young and Green Mannin Acquitted.

MOOREHEAD, Ky., Aug. 17.—Nearly the whole day was occupied by the speeches of Wallace Maguire and Commonwealth Attorney Wickliffe Kendall and Z. T. Young for the defense. While awaiting the verdicts the jury deliberated. When the jury filed into the court-room, and the verdict was announced "not guilty" as to the charges against Z. T. Young, Allie W. Young and Green Mannin, there was scarcely a ripple of excitement in the large crowd present. Much irrelevant testimony was taken in the trial, and the result looks as if the Fleming County jury was a success.

Burglar Brought Down.

BRADFORD, Pa., Aug. 17.—John Weisenberg, an old criminal, was being taken from here to the Western Penitentiary, last winter, after being convicted of burglary. He slipped off his handcuffs, and watching his opportunity jumped from the moving train and made his escape. To-day he was seen by Deputy Sheriff Clark in front of a hotel in Derrick City, who gave chase after the criminal. He was a good runner, and directing his steps toward the woods rapidly increased his lead. Seeing that the man was likely to escape, Clark first fired a warning shot, but this had no effect, and the next bullet went after the target in earnest. It was a bull's-eye, and Weisenberg fell with a ball in his back close to the spine. He is now in the hospital in this city and will die.

After Twenty-Six Years.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 17.—After twenty-six years, Governor Richardson is about to obey a joint resolution of the Legislature of 1861, which was indorsed by the Legislature of 1868, and is to present a gold medal as the gift of the State to General N. G. Evans, of the Confederate army, for conspicuous gallantry at Leesburg, Va., in 1861. This is the only testimonial presented by the State to a soldier in the late war. It will cost $500.

Indiana's financial condition is very bad. The last dollar of the general fund has been paid out, and there are no resources that can be drawn on before next December.

At Morehead last week the jury found a verdict of not guilty in the cases of Z. T. and Allie Young and Green Mannin, on the charge of conspiracy to murder the Logan boys.

The number of railroad wrecks within the last few weeks is much larger than was ever known before in the same length of time. Yet, there seems to be no diminution in the amount of travel.

The Judge of the County Court at Woodstock, Va., who sentenced Senator Riddleberger to jail for contempt of Court, means business. He has impounded a special grand jury which has indicted six of Riddleberger's friends for leading the mob which rescued him from jail. The Deputy Sheriff is also indicted.

The majority in the State for calling a Constitutional Convention is 23,403. The next Legislature will now require another vote in August, 1889, and at the following election for Representatives in 1891 the members to the Constitutional Convention will be voted for. They will assemble, perhaps, in 1892, remain in session nearly six months, and submit the Constitution as framed to the people about 1893, making six years at least, before the new Constitution can be prepared and ready to supersede the old.

Despite the supposed unpopularity of the Hewitt Revenue bill, Gen. Fayette Hewitt, the author of the bill, ran considerably ahead of the Democratic ticket. Tate, Hewitt, Pickett and Corbett each received larger majorities than Buckner.

One of the results of the free trade plank in the Louisville platform is that from Lewis, county to the Big Sandy the Democrats have not elected either Senator or Representative; not one. The counties of Lewis, Fleming, Greenup, Boyd, Lawrence, Johnson, Floyd, Pike, Magoffin and Carter are represented by Republicans. They are naturally Democratic; but they are in the heart of the rainier region, and free trade doctrines have driven them into the Republican ranks.

The Commonwealth claims to be a high protection Democratic paper, which is of itself an impossibility. It is constantly harping on the ruin that would result to the country from free trade, when the fact is that nobody wants free trade; but a large majority wants a rate of tariff which is reasonable, just and sufficient. With the Commonwealth, as with all Republican papers, there is no middle-ground—it is either an exorbitant tariff or free trade.

It will be a colder day than this country has ever known when the Federal Government removes the tax from whiskey and continues it on clothes and shoes.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Difference in Towns.

[Maysville Republican.]

Says the Sterling (Kan.) Republican: "The people of Salina have raised $10,000 cash, by subscription, and donated it to the Daily Journal, of that city, to help establish the enterprise on a paying basis." We know of towns where the people think too much of them to put in a small card—and pay for it. There is a difference in towns you know.

That's About the Size of It.

[Washington Post, Dem.]

The difference between tariff reformers and internal revenue abolishes has been rather pointedly put as being one between those who favor a free, untaxed sideboard and those who favor a free, untaxed wardrobe. Those who oppose reduction of the tariff are for free liquor, and those who propose to continue the tax on whiskey are for giving the people free, untaxed clothing instead. That's about the size of it.

Post-Offices and Pensions for East Kentuckians.

Samuel H. Greer, of East Point, Johnson county, has been granted a pension.

B. F. Kise has been appointed postmaster at George's Creek, Lawrence county.

The pension of Alfred Plane, of Catlettsburg, has been increased.

The pensions of Wm. Bayes, of Greenup, and Barnett Coleman, of Grayson, have been increased.

Within fifty miles of Paducah, in Hardin county, Illinois, a dozen men have been ordered out of the county and killed because they didn't go, by a regular organized band of Ku-Klux, this being of recent occurrence, and more men than have been killed in Rowan county on both sides, in two years. Why does it create so much greater stir for these killings to be carried on in Kentucky? Very few newspapers have paid the least attention to the Illinois affair and the Rowan county feud has been harped about all over the United States. Hardin county, Ill., borders on the Ohio river, too, while Rowan is away up in the mountains and almost out of civilization, the only difference favoring its notoriety seeming to be that it is in Kentucky.—Paducah Daily News.

A New Torpedo Boat.

The Secretary of the Navy invites proposals for the construction of one first-class torpedo boat, complete, exclusive of torpedoes and their appendages, the vessel to be of the best and most modern design, to be constructed of steel of domestic manufacture, having a tensile strength of not less than 60,000 pounds per square inch, and an elongation in eight inches of not less than 25 per cent, and to have the highest attainable speed. Proposals will be received until November 1 next. Premiums will be paid or penalties exacted according as the speed of the vessel shall be above or below 22 knots per hour. The cost of the vessel, exclusive of premiums, is limited to $30,000.—Scientific American.

Two horse thieves were arrested at Owensboro on the 14th inst., were tried and convicted on the 15th, and on the 16th began their terms of two years each in the penitentiary.

Gov. Knott has given a pleasant farewell dinner to the officers of the State Government and the clerks in their departments, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all the participants.

The Town Marshal of Mt. Sterling attempted last week to arrest Sam Ratcliffe, when several of the latter's friends interfered. Several shots were fired and four persons were severely injured.

The citizens of Frankfort have issued a general invitation to the people throughout the State to be present at the inauguration of Gen. Buckner, as Governor of Kentucky, on Tuesday, Aug. 30th.

Hopkinsville has detected a bad odor in the neighborhood of a well in that town, and an investigation is to be had, which will probably result in the formation of another natural gas company.—Courier-Journal.

A mob visited the Harrodsburg jail one night last week with the intention of lynching Sam Randall, a wife murderer; but they found the jailer there in company with a squad of the State Guard. The lynching was deferred.

The magistrates of Scott county held a meeting to consider the proposed submission to the voters of that county of a subscription of $100,000 stock in the Frankfort, Georgetown and Paris railroad. The court divided evenly on the question and the presiding judge voted for submission. The election will be held September 24.

Sunflowers are used in Wyoming Territory for fuel. The stalks when dry are as hard as maplewood and make a hot fire, and the seed heads with the seeds in are said to burn better than the best hard coal. An acre of sunflowers will furnish fuel for one stove for a year.—Scientific American.

According to the report of the First Assistant Postmaster General, 13,079 postmasters were appointed during the fiscal year ended June 30. The total number of postmasters appointed since President Cleveland's inauguration is 45,373, while the number of offices in operation is 58,157.—Courier-Journal.

For a "general imbecility administration," Mr. Cleveland has performed wonderful things. He broke up the navy ring that had absorbed the millions wasted under Republican administrations. He ordered the cattle kings who had taken possession of millions of acres of the public domain in Colorado and New Mexico to get up and get, and they got up and got, leaving rich pastures as homes for settlers. He fulminated a veto that would have bestowed hundreds of millions on a worthless set of sharks and added a quarter million names to the pension roll for the people to support, and the veto was sustained. He restored to the public domain millions of acres of lands that Republican Congresses had voted to railroad corporate monopolies. And last, but by no means least, he has choked off the public debt 75,000 office-holders whom the people had repudiated at the polls and put Democrats in their places. If this be imbecility, bring along whole wagon-loads of it. We will take all you have got and form a corner that will make the Chicago wheat market ashamed of itself.—Louisville Times.

C. P. Miller, a well known lawyer of New York, and his wife both died last Friday, leaving five children.

The Rev. DeWitt Talmage and his family are at Bar Harbor. Both of his daughters are handsome girls and dress in striking costumes. Mrs. Talmage has very handsome diamonds, and young Talmage sports one of the most stunning "blazers" at the resort.

Dennis and Betty Broughton, of Monroe, Ga., have a child seven weeks old, which weighs but three pounds. Its name is only Martha Ann Mary Magdalene Frances Cleveland Broughton. When it has grown a little, its parents will probably add to its patronymic as new ideas suggest themselves.—Courier-Journal.

Jasper Porter, of Georgia, while en route to the house of his affianced to make arrangements for their early marriage, stopped at a wayside church, at which a funeral was being held. When the features of the deceased were exposed to view he was horrified to find that he was attending the funeral of his promised bride.—Courier-Journal.

Rev. Richard Hunt, a colored shepherd who guards the spiritual welfare of a small flock near Nashville, wanted to hold a revival. The expense was light, but the congregation was too poor to pay anything. Accordingly, the over zealous pastor visited a neighbor's pasture and stole a cow, which he drove to Nashville and sold, using the money to carry on his revival. He had secured fifteen converts and had six promising subjects on the mourner's bench, when a constable stepped in and spoiled it all by arresting him for the theft of the cow.—Courier-Journal.

Renews Her Youth. Mrs. Phebe Chesley, Peterson, Cay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story: "The truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: I am 73 years old, have been married 45 years, and have been healthy for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and restored me to health and vigor. Try a bottle, only 50c. at R. F. Vinson Drug Store."

"A feast of reason and flow of soul" said the woman, when she took her pan of Biscuit from the oven, and threw away four kinds of villainous compounds she had purchased, and which they called Soda. The same lady keeps on talking, and says after one trial of J. Monroe Taylor's Gold Medal Soda, if any one is not then satisfied that there is nothing like it, their unbelief will ruin them. Give them a Chance. That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Dr. J. H. McLean's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if every thing else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

Our school is being taught by H. A. Hammond, of Fort Gay, W. Va.

Rev. Miller, aided by Revs. Sneed, Kasee and Swetnam, held a conference at this place last Sunday. A very large crowd was in attendance.

Died, on last Thursday, of flux, Willie Carter, age 11 years. COUNTYTIE.

Just Discovered.

We have been informed by reliable parties that the following is true: There lives a man in this county named William Caudle, now about eighty years old, who never saw a court-house, nor was never in a town of any size whatever. He has not, as many might suppose, been afflicted so as not to have been able to make a trip, but has been a healthy man, and simply had no desire to visit a town.

He once started to this place, but the trip was occasioned and cut short in the following manner: There is another resident of this county named Wm. Caudle, for whom the Sheriff some years ago had a summons to appear before the Lawrence court; and by mistake the Sheriff summoned the subject of this sketch. The fear of being fined if he did not attend increased Mr. Caudle's desire to see a court-house and he therefore made preparations for the journey. When he had gotten as far as the mouth of Hood, (which is twenty miles from Louisa) he met some parties whom he would probably have indicted had he appeared before the grand jury. Taking advantage of his ignorance, the parties set about to cause Mr. Caudle to return home, by telling him that he would be fined if he hitched his horse within the limits of the town, or if he walked on the pavements, and that he would be compelled to hire some one to pilot him to the court-house; and many other absurd stories. He then logically concluded that he would rather remain at home and be fined for not answering the summons than to come to town and be fined for the violation of many laws which he was confident he could not obey. So he immediately returned to his home.

Mr. Caudle is a man of ordinary intelligence, and resides near the Johnson county line.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR

BILIOUSNESS

Is an affection of the Liver, and can be thoroughly cured by that Grand Regulator of the Liver and Biliary Organs.

MANUFACTURED BY

J. H. ZELIN & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

I was afflicted for several years with biliousness, which resulted in a severe attack of jaundice. I had a good medical attendance as our section affords, who failed utterly to restore me to the enjoyment of my former good health. I then tried the famous prescription of one of the most renowned physicians of Louisville, Ky., but to no purpose; whereupon I procured and used the Simmons Liver Regulator. I found immediate benefit from its use, and it ultimately restored me to the full enjoyment of health.
